A piece of advice

Cleaning the mirror

The best way to clean your mirror is to polish it with a cloth that was slightly moistened with hot water. Then rub it dry and your mirror will shine like it used to. You should avoid the use of glass cleaning products. They are too aggressive for the reflecting layer of silver.

Storage

Store the mirrors in an upright position and in the original packaging.

Label

Do not stick any labels on to the frame of the mirror. Attach them to the mirror glass instead. This will allow you to peel off the label more easily.

NL

Warme adviezen

Spiegel poetsen

Het beste reinigingsmiddel is een doekje dat licht bevochtigd is met warm water. Even droogwrijven en de spiegel blinkt weer als van te voren. Glasreinigingsproducten zijn hier niet op hun plaats. Ze zijn te agressief voor de weerkaatsende zilverlaag.

Stockeren

Stockeer de spiegels verticaal in de originele verpakking.

Etiket

Kleef geen etiketten op de omlijsting van de spiegel. Gebruik daarvoor het spiegelglas. Hier krijg je het etiket makkelijk weer los.

FR

Quelques précieux conseils

Nettoyer un miroir

Un chiffon légèrement humidifié avec de l'eau chaude constitue le meilleur moyen de le nettoyer. Une fois frotté pour être séché, le miroir brille à nouveau comme avant. Les produits de nettoyage du verre ne conviennent pas. Ils sont trop agressifs pour la couche d'argent réfléchissante.

Le stockage

Stockez les miroirs verticalement, dans leur emballage original.

L'étiquette

Ne collez pas d'étiquettes sur le cadre du miroir. Utilisez le verre du miroir à cette fin. Vous parviendrez plus facilement à y enlever l'étiquette.

DE

Empfehlungen

Spiegel reinigen

Das beste Reinigungsmittel ist ein mit etwas warmem Wasser angefeuchtetes Tuch. Kurz trockenreiben, und der Spiegel glänzt wieder wie zuvor. Glasreinigungsprodukte sind hier nicht gefragt. Für die Versilberung sind diese Mittel zu ätzend.

Lagern

Lagern Sie die Spiegel senkrecht in der Originalverpackung.

Aufkleber

Keine Aufkleber auf die Einrahmung des Spiegels kleben. Verwenden Sie dafür das Spiegelglas, von dem der Aufkleber einfach zu entfernen ist.

CHASSIS XL DELUXE

Chassis XL Deluxe oozes elegance and sophistication. The rich green marble and polished brass finish of the frame complement each other perfectly. This free-standing mirror is a focal point in any interior. The Chassis XL Deluxe gives depth to an object that generally is considered to be flat: the mirror. The front mirror is clear while the mirror at the back is grey. This adds a luxurious look and feel to the mirror.

SPEKTRUM

Spektrum is the result of an exciting cooperation between Karim Rashid and Deknudt Mirrors. Together, we have explored the limits of silk screen printing technology by using transparent colours. The different coloured areas on the mirror are the result of layers of paint. Combining layers results in the creation of different hues. The overlapping swirls bring light, colour and movement to a flat surface. Spektrum is a typical Karim design, being both art and functional. He loves these sensual, tactile shapes which give this mirror a human dimension.

PASSO

Axelle Vertommen's designs are characterised by a modernist touch and striking use of colour. Both elements are very much present in the Passo mirror. The stepwise rising striped pattern inspired the name of the mirror, 'Passo' means 'step' in Italian. The mirror is arched at the top so that the overall experience in the interior becomes softer and more elegant.

The size of this mirror allows it to be both functional and easy to integrate in any interior.

CORD DECO

Roberto Paoli took inspiration from the geometric work of Kepler. The mirror is a circle divided by a cord. Following the proportions chosen by Kepler, Roberto has emphasized the difference between the two parts of the circle. The biggest segment is made of flat mirror whereas the smaller segment is made of silvered glass with a texture. Silvering the textured glass produces a surprisingly aesthetically-pleasing material. The reflection in the mirror is split, creating a part blurry, part clear reflection. The contrast between these two images is intriguing.

TRAVERTIN

The recognisable lines and swirls of limestone give Travertin depth and character. The texture of this stone is applied to glass using silkscreen printing just before the silvering process. A sleek metal frame encloses this organic image, creating a piece of art. The print is very delicate and doesn't disturb the functionality of the mirror.

MIKA

Inge Rylant's work as an illustrator is defined by two main characteristics: screen printing and Japanese aesthetics. For MIKA, Inge has combined the tactile nature of screen printing with the visual style of Japanese photographer Yoshi Takata, who worked for the french fashion designer Pierre Cardin in the 60's-70's. The result is a subtle interaction of abstract colour fields, a perfect fit for fans of contemporary design.

MIKA is a popular Japanese maiden name that contains both the characters 美 (beauty) and 加 (increase).

CONNECT COLLECTION

Louise Mertens runs a fine art studio based in Antwerp, Belgium. Her work became a trademark of herself and her admiration for purity. She is inspired by the minimal and works with different textures where she eliminates until the purest form.

Together with Deknudt Mirrors, she has turned a mirror into a piece of art.

CONNECT

The Connect collection brings art into your home. It perfectly combines the graphical shapes of Louise Mertens with reflective surfaces. A composition of black and transparent elements combined with clear mirror pieces. Subtle details such as the structure of the paper, which was the base of the drawing, give that extra texture.

FLUX AND FLOC

Mira is a duo of contemporary artists who started collaborating in 2015.

Yvan Brutsaert's work is full of strength, intuition, movement and material. Sometimes cosmic, sometimes mineral. Laurent Van Ausloos appropriates it by giving it his own artistic vision. A photographic and contemporary vision capturing painting as a landscape and transforming it to create atmospheres, play of lights and visual depth.

FLUX AND FLOC

For this special collection, they were inspired by the use of rounded or wavy abstract forms based on what one finds in nature.

For the viewer, new contrasts, shapes and shapes of colour and depth will bring up new emotions. A real piece of art.

A waterjet machine is normally used for cutting stone and metal plates by means of a high-pressure water beam.

Since installing this machine our freedom in designing mirror shapes has increased drastically. Not only can we now cut the craziest contour lines, more than that we are also able to cut within the mirror surface with the highest level of precision. Bespoke fantasy shapes, company logos, combinations with other materials, ... the limits to what we can do have dramatically expanded.

After all.. you don't push your boundaries by staying within the lines !

SPILIA

The Spilia mirror is a poetic translation of Plato's Allegory of the Cave. Luca Beel and Adriaan Tas wish to point out that the reflection in a mirror, despite its close resemblance to the original, is only a projection of reality. They want to invite the viewer to - metaphorically - step out of the cave and look into the world.

SCOOPY & SCOOP

Scoop and Scoopy are typical Karim designs, being both art and equipment. The shell shaped mirror features sloping lines. Amorphous and minimalistic, organic and human, they cradle the reflection and contribute to the atmosphere and the experience in the room. The two cushy geometric shapes incorporate a light source that accentuates the smooth finish and slanting lines of the shell. Wonderful wall compositions can be created by combining different shapes and colours, leading to what Karim Rashid calls "Ego Art".

screen printing

Screenprinting or silkscreening was originally developed in ancient Japan as a printing technique on silk. The technique was improved over the centuries, and also contemporary artists like Andy Warhol used it. Deknudt Mirrors has perfected this technique for applications on mirrors. It allows us to create the most beautiful artistic patterns and detailed images in any style you might think of. For companies and contract business we use it to reproduce logos, brand names, slogans and texts.

Partial silvering is a clever application of screen printing in the very first phase of the creation of a mirror. Instead of printing an ink motive on the glass surface, we use the technique in a more sophisticated way when putting the silver layer on the glass plate. It has a higher precision than traditional sandblasting. The result is a stunning semi-transparent mirror interacting with the wall behind it. Deceptive trompe l'oeil effects make you wonder where the lines lie between mirror and wall.

Free-hand sketching led to the fluid shapes of the gracious Gustav and balanced Stan. This pair of mirrors complement each other nicely, but can also perfectly exist as separate entities. CORD

In geometry, the line connecting two points of a circle, without passing through its centre, is defined as the cord. The CORD mirror is a design from Roberto Paoli, who took inspiration from the geometric work of Kepler. Paoli respected the proportions chosen by Kepler and emphasized the difference between the two sections of the circle with different colours.

silvering

We only cover the glass with a thin layer of silver. In this way we, as pioneers, gave short shrift to the polluting copper layer. For the silvering, the proportion of the ingredients has to be exact. A large number of parameters need to be monitored closely.

Over the past seventy years we have become experts in this field.

TUTTI XL

The Tutti XL sees everything, but it doesn't see you...
A careful arrangement of strips of mirrored glass breaks up the room. Each lamina, with perfectly polished edges, has been expertly cut to a thickness of 5 mm and is supported by a strong synthetic frame. The black back creates a finely-drawn shadow effect.
Hung vertically or horizontally, this mirror, with its fragmented reflections, is a real attention grabber.

CHASSIS XL

Chassis XL gives depth to an object that generally is considered to be flat: the mirror. The Chassis XL claims a more important space in its environment compared to a regular mirror, but at the same time it oozes elegance and lightness. Behind the mirror, room is created to fix an oak shelf on which smaller personal objects can be placed.

It can stand free in the room, which makes it a sort of room divider.

That said, nothing prevents you from using Chassis XL as a standing mirror against a wall.

finishing the edges

Grinding: we grind the cut edges with a diamond polisher. Resulting in a nice and smooth edge. With regard to form and finish, practically anything is possible: from straight to round and mat to shiny. At the end of the process the mirrors are extensively washed and checked for any possible imperfections.

Bevelling: at the border of the mirror we create an inclined edge by means of bevelling. This is possible in different widths and different angles. After that, the inclined edge is polished in order to obtain the 'brilliant' effect on the finished mirror. A bevel provides our mirrors with an extra touch.

ANTIQUE SERIES

The Antique mirrors are an imitation of the well-known antique mirror glass, manufactured with modern production techniques. To enhance the atmosphere, an artistic nonchalant black printed frame finishes the edge of the mirror. This creates a very trendy vintage look. Antique and contemporary at the same time.

BASIC COLLECTION

Basic shapes, nice and balanced sizes and very appropriate finishes make this mirror family one of the most important in our collections. The gold, copper and silver version are masterfully finished with metal leaf at the back of a pure transparent glass plate. On top, a clear mirror with an elegant small bevel makes the whole irresistible.

making moulds & injecting

Some of our mirrors get a decorative frame manufactured by us in polyurethane. Precision work once more, as the tiniest mistake in the mould is immediately visible on the frame.

Polyurethane has many advantages, including the fact that large frames are moulded in one piece, that it is a very light material and that it is not affected by moisture or heat.

applying metal leaf

Applying metal leaf or 'gold leaf' is a very painstaking and intense job. It requires a lot of insight, a high level of craftsmanship and tons of patience. The leaves have to be applied in exactly the right way and dust-free onto the previously protected and treated frame. The result: a frame that shines marvellously and reflects the light in a magnificent way.

The line game in the frame is contemporary, the design looks like a folded piece of paper, a motif that is applied in decorative pieces like vases, crockery, ...

PRECIOUS

Our in-house technique of molded frames made of Polyurethane makes it possible to realize the most difficult forms. Precious is one of these delights. Finished by hand in shiny gold, silver or copper leaf, this diamond shaped mirror gleams and sparkles like a real gemstone. Thanks to its curved shape, it seems to come off the wall. A precious mirror.

CONVEX MIRROR

Having a convex mirror in your home reflects a sense of mystery. Convex mirrors do have a real history. They played an important role in the running of high class households. The convex mirror allowed the butler to oversee the progress of supper, whilst keeping a discrete distance from the guests. It was a helpful tool in keeping an eye on the situation.

Less well-known is the rather enchanting name the French have for the convex mirror: 'oeil de sorcière', the eye of the sorceress. In France, and elsewhere in Northern Europe in the middle ages, the convex mirror was attributed magical powers. It was thought that, like a huge eye, the convex mirror could observe all around it and repel evil forces.
